“That Blessed Upper Room”

Frank Cardinal Leo, Metropolitan Archbishop of Toronto, has released “That Blessed Upper Room,” a pastoral letter inviting the faithful of the archdiocese to reflect together on the significance of The Upper Room in our lives, our families and in our communities of faith as this story is so directly connected to pivotal events in the life of Jesus and of the early Church. The letter is divided into nine chapters, drawing on dimensions of our Catholic Christian life. A short video and entire letter can be viewed at www.archtoronto.org/thatblessedupperroom.

“Today so often, we lose the ability to listen, to really listen.
We listen to music, we have our ears flooded constantly with all kinds of digital input, but sometimes we forget to listen to our own hearts and it's in our hearts that God speaks to us, that God calls us and invites us to know him better and to live in his love.” – Pope Leo XIV

Leo PP XIV

"For I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the LORD, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope." (Jeremiah 29:11) This verse reassures us that there is a divine plan for our lives, and it is one filled with hope and prosperity. It encourages us to trust in God's unfolding purpose for our journey.
